SEALED INDICTMENT

21 Cr.

21 CRIM 536

COUNT ONE
(Conspiracy to Commit Computer Intrusions)

The Grand Jury charges:

Overview of the Criminal Conduct

1. Between in or about March 2019 and in or about May 2019, JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, participated in a scheme to use SIM swaps to conduct cyber intrusions in order to steal approximately $784,000 worth of cryptocurrency from a Manhattan-based cryptocurrency company ("Company-1").

2. During a cyber intrusion known as a SIM swap attack, cyber threat actors gain control of a victim's mobile phone number by linking that number to a subscriber identity module ("SIM") card controlled by the threat actors, resulting in the victim's calls and messages being routed to a malicious unauthorized device controlled by the threat actors. The threat actors then typically use control of the victim's mobile phone number to obtain unauthorized access to accounts held by the victim that are registered to the mobile phone number.

3. During all times relevant to the Indictment, Company-1 provided wallet infrastructure and related software to cryptocurrency exchanges around the world. Between in or about March 2019 and in or about May 2019, JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and his co-conspirators successfully perpetrated SIM swap attacks targeting at least three Company-1 executives ("Executive-1," "Executive-2," and "Executive-3").

4. Following a successful SIM swap attack targeting Executive-1 on or about April 30, 2019, JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, successfully gained unauthorized access to multiple Company-1 accounts and computer systems.

5. On or about May 1, 2019, using their unauthorized access to Company-1 accounts and computer systems, JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, stole and fraudulently diverted cryptocurrency of various types (the "Stolen Cryptocurrency") from cryptocurrency wallets maintained by Company-1 on behalf of two of its clients. The Stolen Cryptocurrency was worth at least approximately $784,000 at the time of the theft and included approximately 770.784869 Bitcoin cash, approximately 6,363.490509 Litecoin, approximately 407.396074 Ethereum, and approximately 7.456728 Bitcoin.

6. After stealing and fraudulently diverting the Stolen Cryptocurrency, JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, laundered it through dozens of transfers and transactions and exchanged some of it for Bitcoin using cryptocurrency exchange services. Ultimately, a portion of the Stolen Cryptocurrency was deposited into a cryptocurrency exchange account controlled by O'CONNOR.

Statutory Allegations

7. From at least in or about March 2019, up to and including at least in or about May 2019, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly did combine, conspire, confederate, and agree together and with each other to commit offenses against the United States, to wit, computer intrusion, in violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1030(a)(2)(C), 1030(c)(2)(B)(i) and (iii), 1030(a)(4), 1030(c)(3)(A), 1030(a)(5)(A), 1030(a)(5)(B), 1030(c)(4)(A)(i)(I) and 1030(c)(4)(B)(i).

8. It was a part and object of the conspiracy that JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, would and did intentionally access computers without authorization, and exceed authorized access, and thereby obtained information from protected computers, for purposes of commercial advantage and private financial gain, and the value of the information obtained would and did exceed $5,000, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1030(a)(2)(C) and 1030(c)(2)(B)(i) and (iii).

9. It was further a part and object of the conspiracy that JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, would and did knowingly and with intent to defraud, access and attempt to access protected computers without authorization, and exceed authorized access, and by means of such conduct would and did further the intended fraud and obtain something of value that exceeded $5,000 in a one-year period, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1030(a)(4) and (c)(3)(A).

10. It was further a part and object of the conspiracy that JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, knowingly would and did cause the transmission of a program, information, code and command, and, as a result of such conduct, would and did intentionally cause damage, without authorization, to protected computers, which would and did cause a loss (including loss resulting from a related course of conduct affecting one and more other protected computers) aggregating to at least $5,000 in value to one and more persons during any one-year period, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1030(a)(5)(A), 1030(c)(4)(A)(i)(I) and 1030(c)(4)(B)(i).

11. Overt Acts

12. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the illegal objects thereof, the following overt acts, among others, were committed in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere:

a. On or about April 30, 2019, JOSEPH JAMES O'CONNOR, a/k/a "PlugwalkJoe," the defendant, and others known and unknown, perpetrated a SIM swap of the mobile phone number used by Executive-1. Within hours of this SIM swap attack, O'CONNOR and his co-conspirators leveraged control of Executive-1's phone number to obtain unauthorized access to Company-1 accounts and computer systems.

b. On or about April 30 and May 1, 2019, as part of their unauthorized access to Company-1 accounts and computer systems, O'CONNOR and his co-conspirators changed G Suite account passwords for several Company-1 employees. As a result, Company-

1 employees, including employees in the Southern District of New York, were unable to access their corporate G Suite accounts.

c. On or about May 1, 2019, using their unauthorized access to Company-1 accounts and computer systems, O'CONNOR and his co-conspirators diverted the Stolen Cryptocurrency from cryptocurrency wallets maintained by Company-1 on behalf of two of its clients to cryptocurrency addresses and wallets controlled by O'CONNOR and his co-conspirators.

d. On or about May 4, 2021, following SIM swap attacks targeting Executive-2 and Executive-3, O'CONNOR or one of his co-conspirators (the "Conspirator") accessed Executive-3's Skype account without authorization and used said account to send numerous messages via group chat to Company-1 employees, including to one or more employees in the Southern District of New York. During the Skype group chat, the Conspirator described, in substance and in part, the SIM swap targeting Executive-1, the unauthorized access to Company-1 accounts and computer systems, and the resulting theft of cryptocurrency. The Conspirator also posed questions to Company-1 employees about, in substance and in part, Company-1 computer infrastructure and its employees' cryptocurrency holdings.
